The Times Of Our Lives

ANNUAL DEDICATED TO "PRIDE" OF DEWEY

We wish to honor Coach Leon Peper and the five starters; Jeff Enabnit, David DeShazo, Paul Likens, Mark Johnson, and Warren Murray, for their outstanding show of sportsmanship and leadership within the school and community.

These five young men have worked together in basketball for several years, and this year have proven their ability not only as outstanding basketball players, but also as fine Christian citizens. This year they have united the team as one through their pre-game Bible studies. This has brought a special kind of closeness between each of the players and their coaches.

Coach Leon Peper has led Dewey's basketball teams for the past three years. He decided to end his coaching career with a season which no one can deny was the best.

The achievements of Coach Peper and these five Senior players will long be remembered. With great admiration we dedicate this annual to the "Pride" of Dewey.

Spirit Filled The Times Of Our Lives

No one could deny the amount of spirit that was present at D.H.S. this past year. There was not only spirit, but there was a great amount of pride felt not only by the student body but also by the faculty and administration. Good-Bye To You

Dear Trusted Friends

May 26, 1977 was the day the 1977 Senior Class said good-bye to many friends. One of the many seasons in our lives was thus completed. We said good-bye to a way of life that we had come to accept as "the way" to live. Being at school at 8:35 to talk with friends, and spending much of our time participating in school activities. Friendships that were made will never be forgotten, nor will the memories of our selling campaigns. Sr. Shirts were an ever present sight in the halls as were the Srs. trying to sell cookies and M&M's. Our marbles will also be a memory that will not soon be forgotten, for they too became a friend to every Sr. class member. In the years to come we will look back and remember our Sr. year as one of the best times in our lives. For now we'll say good-bye to our dear trusted friends, but, only until we meet again.

Mother Nature, and just a little bit of imagination is all it took to create these scenes. Scenes that when just glanced at mean nothing, but when really looked at, can mean memories, laughter, and uniqueness. Special Assemblies Provided

Special Assemblies meant time out of class and the above students enjoy an outdoor pep rally which was held in honor of "Fifties Day." This followed a homecoming parade and the rally was held in the park (Upper left). Sophomore President Randy Ragsdale opens the Sophomore Assembly held on Veteran's Day each year (Upper right). Donna Evans, Lisa Jarret, Debbie Parnell, and Debbie Hindman participated in a Greek Day contest, which is an annual Freshman event. Mrs. Crow discusses the details of the European Study Tour with the Bartlesville Coordinator. Students interested were invited to sit in on a film about former Study Tour students.

Entertainment, Excitement, And Education

Most of our assemblies provided fun and entertainment as well as being a break from hard work in class. Steve Shriver enjoys being serenaded in front of fellow students by a pretty girl who was a member of a college singing group touring area high schools (Above left). Senator Jerry Pierce gave an interesting speech at the annual Veteran's Day Assembly (Upper right). Mark Johnson is a bit apprehensive as another singer attempts to get him in front of the audience as part of her act (Lower left). "Mark Twain" paid a visit to DHS this year and made us laugh and think a bit at the same time.

ALL SPORTS BANQUET

seventy-seven

Jim King (Left) was the guest speaker of this year's All Sports Banquet. Mr. King came from T.U. where he is the head basketball coach. The evening was put on by the Larriettes and the Booster Club in honor of our high school athletes. Time was also taken to recognize the cheerleaders and Larriette officers who so heartily supported them. The special climax of the night was when the five Senior starters of the basketball team presented their retiring head coach, Mr. Peper, with a plaque for their appreciation of all that he had done. (Bottom left hand corner) Mr. and Mrs. Peper stop to gaze at his presentation after the banquet. (Bottom right hand corner)

The event: the Junior Senior Prom. The magic night: April 23. The time and place: 8:00 p.m. at the Bartlesville Elks Club. The setting: glittering steps, reflecting images and twinkling fountains, building the theme of "Stairway to Heaven." One might call it perfect with a touch of mystery and a glow of excitement. All in all it was an evening that will not be forgotten. Right are pictured the Senior women as they stop for a break between songs. Below are (Left) Glenda Mundine and Ernie Hardeman and (Right) David DeShazo, Kelly Kroh and Warren Murray as they surround their favorite (?) teacher, Mrs. Steward.

77 Jr. Sr. Prom

The band performing was "Better Daze," the same group that played for the 76 Prom. The Juniors contracted them at the special request of the Seniors. At the time the band was split but formed together again to play for our dance. An After-Prom was held at the Dewey Fair Grounds Building lasting from 1:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m. where "Better Daze" also played. Shown left are the Senior men as they take time to pose for a picture. Bottom left are Carlita Smith, Brenda Dillon and Bernadette Shaw smiling for the camera between dances. Bottom right are pictured Van Lyda and Debbie Gilliland as they enjoy the magic of the evening.

Stairway To Heaven

The Student-Faculty games were hard fought matches that were filled with excitement and fun for everyone that came. When the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors met it was the Senior men who came out on top. That is until they met the Faculty men. Below are: Senior men (Top), Juniors (Middle) and Sophomores (Bottom).

April Fool's Day was the date of the games but that evening turned out to be no joke for David or Tina. For having the largest percentage of their class attending the night's activities James Howard, filling in for the Sophomore President, gave both David DeShazo, Senior Class President (Above) and Tina Wilson, Junior Class President (Bottom) pies in the face.

The first of the girls' games was between the Sophomores and the Juniors with the Sophomores winning. They also won their next game which was with the Senior women. It wasn't until the Sophomores met the Faculty women that they were finally beaten. Below are (Top) Seniors, (Middle) Juniors and (Bottom) Sophomores.

Seniors Travel

This year's Seniors worked hard to raise the money to charter buses and pay for tickets to get to Worlds of Fun Grad Night at Kansas City. Through cookie sales, marbles, M&M's, T-shirts, and bake sales, we accomplished this feat and at one o'clock, on the sixth of April we started our journey. Some of the fun things we found there are shown in the pictures below.

To Kansas City

Diana Stewart, Linda Milligan, and Randy Inlow find Worlds of Fun to be a large place with lots of things to see. (Left). Mrs. Stewart and Miss Herren find that they aren't as young as they used to be and enjoy a little relaxation. (Center). Martha Smithson manages to look fresh after being out all night and spending many long hours on a bus, as she starts for home the morning after the trip. (Lower left). Carol Brashears, Richard Maldonado, Gary Cummins, John Murgia and Cecil Green wait anxiously to get on the bus.

All in all the trip was a big success and the Sponsors as well as the Seniors all had a good time. Besides rides, there were several other ways to occupy your time at Grad Night. You could go to a concert, dance at a disco, spend your money at arcades or buy souvenirs at the gift shops.

"It is not what you are thought to be, but what you are."

Nineteen Seventy-Seven

Peppermint Carnations, "We've Only Just Begun"

Graduation is a milestone in life. It is an ending and a beginning. It is a steppingstone from the past with its hours of study and its marvelous moments of fun to a new and somewhat different life with great challenges and responsibilities. Graduation is a sad and happy time of life when we must say goodbye to so much and so many. It is a time of laughter and tears, praise and witticism, orations and reflections. It is a day to be dead serious and lighthearted, enthusiastic and apprehensive. It is a time to put away a part of ourselves in the memories of what used to be.

THE ROAD GOODBYE

The road I took was named Goodbye
 The path looked strange. I wondered why
 It left familiar things behind.
 A hand caught mine . . . I paid no mind.
 The stranger never once did say
 Just what had brought him on my way.
 On we went, and some afraid
 I wished I hadn't come but stayed.
 All the friends that I once knew
 Took a road named Goodbye too.
 There were no two roads just the same
 Though all were called Goodbye by name.
 And though I couldn't understand
 We walked together hand in hand.
 We said no words, but just walked on,
 I thought of things now past and gone.
 I thought of games I'd lost and won,
 I thought of all the things I'd done,
 I thought of those I loved and cared,
 I thought of things, of tears I'd shed . . .
 The same things now brought smiles instead.
 The tasks I'd done, those left to do,
 I wondered how I'd make it through.
 The way was rough; I knew the score,
 It never ends . . . there's always more.
 But now I know that all in all
 Each thing in its own place will fall.
 I thought of all the happy days,
 The sad ones now just seemed a haze.
 And in a flash I came to see
 How much the past had meant to me.
 We walked along - I wondered where
 The future led and what was there.
 The past still echoed from behind
 I was its, and it was mine.
 But in my heart was still a fear,
 And in my eye a shining tear;
 Yet on my face there was a smile,
 And we walked forward all the while.
 I walked along the road Goodbye.
 I looked back once . . . I heaved a sigh.
 Then I remembered at my side -
 My silent, but my constant guide.
 The stranger's hand I felt in mine.
 I looked into his face this time.
 I asked his name - he turned just so,
 He smiled and said, "I'm called Hello."

Organizations

Art Students

Art students this year were under the supervision of a new teacher, Ms. Sharon Yates.

Express Themselves

Whether it is a complicated watercolor or just a simple pencil sketch, to each artist it is a masterpiece. They put a little of themselves into each one, making it very unique and special. One of these hardworking artists (Shown at the left) is Mark Johnson busy working on a perspective drawing. (Below) Kent Dunlap looks on as John Murguía puts the finishing touches on his masterpiece.

Spanish Club Travels

The Spanish Club did many things this year and leading the way was the club's officers. Shown at the right are Kay Ice, president; Teresa Mallow, vice-president; and Denise Robinson, secretary-treasurer.

What is a better idea for the club to get together than to make pinatas! Those displaying their projects are (Back row) Donna Swieter, Angela Ross, Brenda Lee, Miss Murguia, Lisa Jarrett, Susan Swieter, Lisa Tyner. Front row: Don Howard, Don Melchioris, Tina Chancellor, Glenda Mundine and Stuart Wolfe.

South Of The Border

This year there were several freshmen in Spanish Club. Just a few are shown at the left: Donna Swieter, Brenda Lee, Lisa Jarrett, and Angela Ross.

During spring break, Miss Murguía and eight club members went to Mexico for a week. Although some unexpected things came up, the trip was an unforgettable experience for everyone. (Below) Those who went were: Back: Miss Murguía, Charice Baker, Brenda Lee, Glenda Mundine, Kay Ice. Front: Don Melchioris, Mary Ann Melchioris, Tina Chancellor and Stuart Wolfe.

Library Club Lends

At some time or another, we have all found it necessary to go to the library for research material or just a book. Although Mrs. Winn tries very hard, she is not able to help everyone and still do her own work. This is why every year the school hires a student from study hall each hour to help in the library. It is these aides that make up the Library Club.

One of the annual end of the year library chores is the taking inventory of the books and magazines.

The shelves must be checked to make sure the books are in their proper places.

In the lower righthand picture, Renae Jacobs helps Mrs. Winn in going through the stacks and looking for any magazines that may be missing.

A Helping Hand

Each year the Library Club holds a book fair in the library's reference room during the fall. All kinds of books are displayed; from modern to classicals, fiction to non-fiction. There are books for all ages and interests. Elementary school, Junior high and High school students are able to browse through the books on display and order the ones they want. This is the Library club's only money raising project for the year. Not only does this project raise money, but it also gives the student body a chance to enrich their reading. Pictured at the left is one of the Junior English classes looking over the books.

Senior Dean Williams (Shown in the lower left picture) pauses from his usual library duties to smile for the photographer and to find out if anything interesting is going on in the study hall. The library aides are always checking books and magazines both in and out, shelving them, doing various odd jobs, and running errands for Mrs. Winn.

Facing The Future With Builders Of Homes

Unlike most of the other clubs at DHS, the FHA did not wait until school had started to get the ball rolling. They were even active during the summer. Elections were held in the spring of last year so the new officers could get busy. The 76-77 officers were Kay Ice, president; Joan Enabnit, vice-president; Debbie Glass, secretary; Dana Hindman, treasurer; and Arlys Nieman, parliamentarian. In the month of August Kay, Joan, and Dana went with Miss Herren to Pawhuska to meet with other officers from schools in the district and discussed plans for the Sub-District meeting which was held in September of 76 at Pawhuska. Shown at the right is (Top picture) Dana Hindman, Joan Enabnit, (Bottom picture) Kay Ice, and Tina Chancellor at the Sub-District meeting. These girls lead discussion groups of controversial subjects.

High Hopes And Warm Hearts

For America's Future

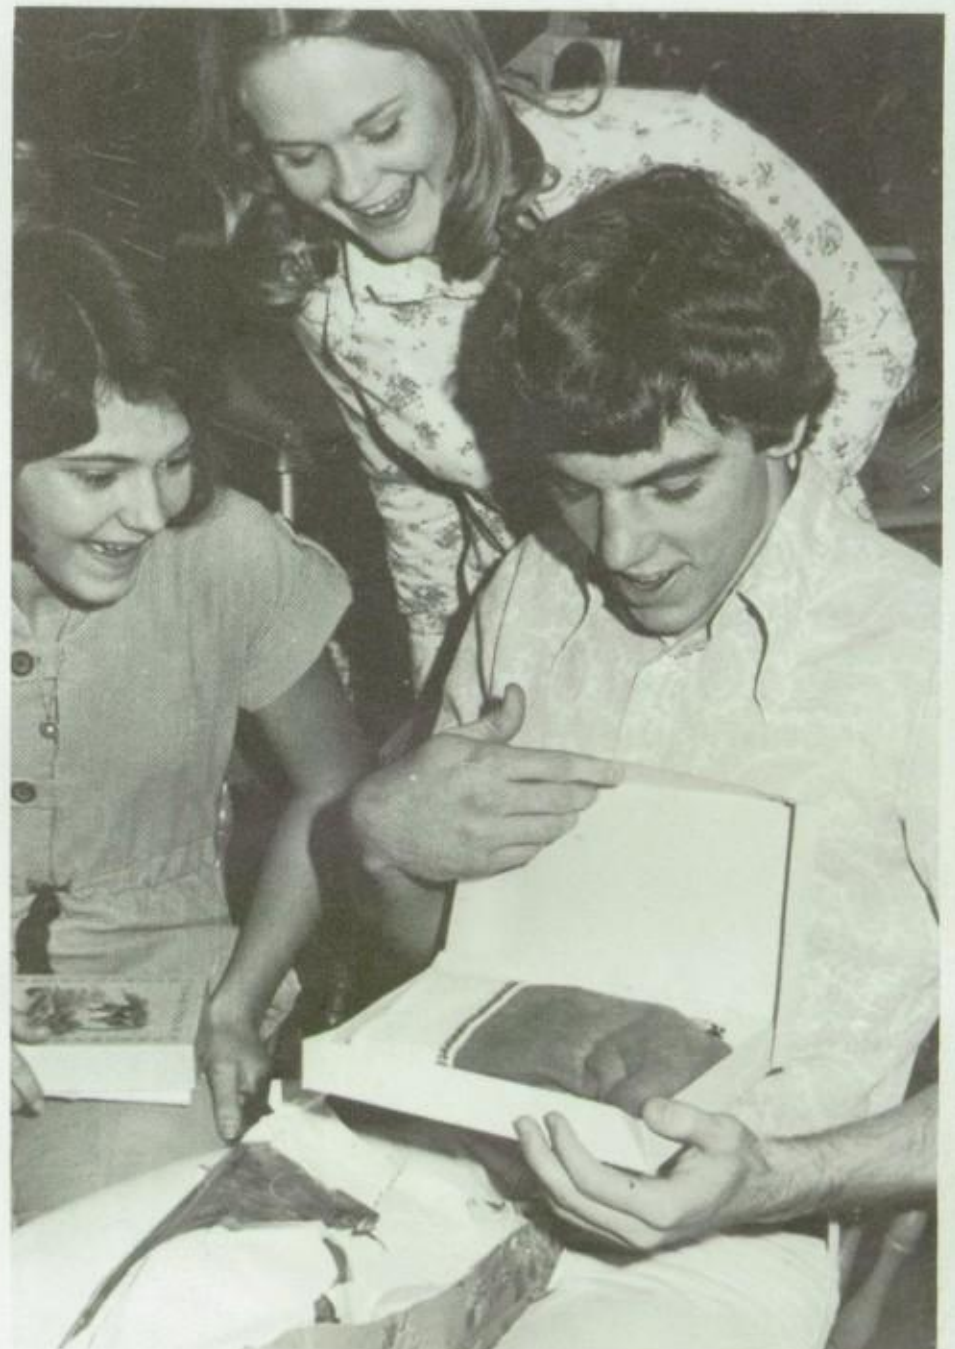

All over the nation, guys are joining FHA. They are finding that it is not just for girls, it holds many opportunities for them also. This year there were no guys in Home Ec., but to promote the male interest in the classes, the Family Living classes switched with the Vo. Ag. and Welding classes. At the far left, Keith Woolever finds that the best part of the switch was getting to lick the beaters. At the immediate left, Miss Herren gives welding a try. On April 1, ten FHA girls, the student teachers, and Miss Herren attended the State Rally at Ok. City. (Lower left) Those who went were: Back: Angela Ross, Barbara Thompson, Debbie Glass, Denise Stanberry, Zonya Rotramel, Lisa Chaffee. Front: Brenda Griggs, Miss Sumpter, Joan Enabnit, Tina Chancellor and Miss Herren. Not shown are Kay Ice and Miss Meredith.

1977 Del-Con Promotes Student-

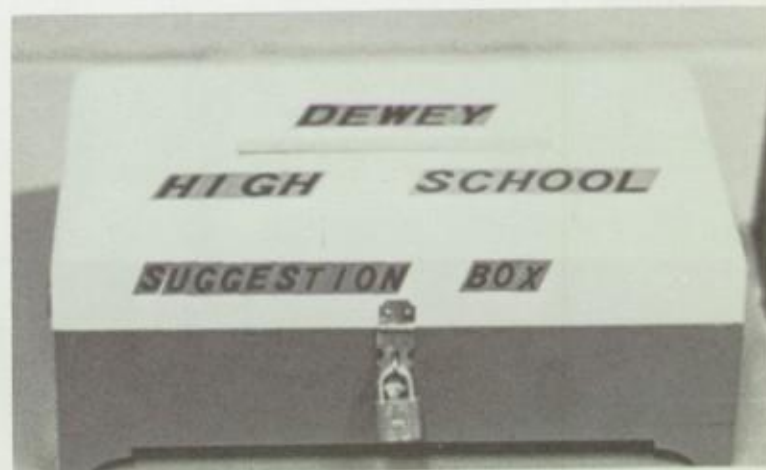

Again Del-Con gave the students a voice in the school, created a better understanding between administration and students, and promoted the student interest. Shown at the left are the representatives: Back: Seniors Scott Boyd, Sandy Ker, Kathy Rowton, Cecil Green, Nancy Pike, Jamie Popkess and Martha Smithson. Middle: Juniors Gary Gwaltney, Stacy Magana, Cindy French, Kent Dunlap, Karen May, Sharon Lakey, and Charice Baker. Front: Sophomores Kelly Gilliland, Liz Bowers, Marilyn Emert, Lisa Stanberry, Jeff Bengé, Rhonda Hess and Jana Yearout.

Pictured below is this year's Del-Con officers. Beginning at the left and moving right is Cecil Green, chairman; Cindy French, vice-chairman, Karen May, reporter; Mrs. Jennings, sponsor; Kathy Rowton, chaplain; Gary Gwaltney, treasurer; and Sandy Ker, secretary. (Lower right) One of their activities was a Christmas party. Sharon Lakey and Sandy Ker look on as Jeff Enabnit opens his present.

Faculty Cooperation And Understanding

Del-Con chose to raise money for the Heart Fund this year. The Council selected six girls to compete for Heart Fund Queen. The girls carried cans around and collected money. (Top picture) Margo Thorpe, who raised the most money was announced the winner and was crowned Queen by King John Murguia at a dance, sponsored by Del-Con, on February 11. All money raised and the admissions from the dance were given to the Heart Fund. (Above left) Marilyn Emert and Jamie Popkess were just one of the couples attending the dance. (Top picture) Being president of Del-Con, Cecil Green found himself master-of-ceremonies at a few of the assemblies. (Above right) Del-Con has provided the school with a suggestion box so that students can suggest changes or express their opinions. The box is located in the High School office.

Y-Teens . . . Giving, Caring,

Y-teen officers were (Above) Martha Smithson, vice-pres.; Nancy Pike, pres.; Michelle Moffat, sec.; and Theresia Thompson, treas. This year's new sponsor was Carol Peper. (Right) Their first project was a bake sale where they gave away puppies from the SPCA. (Lower right) Mary Ann Melchioris, Brenda Phillips and Barbara Allen were just a few who attended the Mother-Daughter pot-luck dinner. Shown below at the Y-teen Christmas dance are Martha Smithson and Mark Johnson.

Standing are Barbara Allen, Debbie Gilliland, Sandy Youngs, Charice Baker, Lisa Stanberry, Jill Whittenburg, Julie DeShazo, Jana Yearout, Missy Adams, Lee Schumacher, Liz Bowers, Michelle Moffat, Julie Hunter, Mary Ann Melchioris, Melissa Meyers, Margo Thorpe and Patty Foote. Seated are (Back) Nancy Pike, Jeff Enabnit, Martha Smithson, (Front) Sandy Ker, Teresa Mallow, Kathy Rowton and Peggy Stuart.

At the Christmas dance, a number was drawn and the couple holding that number found themselves royalty for the evening. (Left) Patty Foote and her date received the title of King and Queen. Margo Thorpe

1977 Ugly Man

What would be a more appropriate time to have Ugly Man contest than on April Fool's Day. In their best (?) outfits, the candidates were escorted onto the court where they waited to hear who would hold the coveted title of Ugly Man '77. The Senior candidates were (Above) Richard Maldonado escorted by Kathy Rowton, and (Above center) Troy Lippert escorted by Julie Hunter. (Below) Junior Doyle Lippert was escorted by Michelle Moffat.

(Above) Junior candidate J. D. Grass was escorted by Jill Whittenburg. The Sophomores were represented by candidates (Below center) Ronnie Truitt escorted by Julie DeShazo, and (Below) Jeff Benge escorted by Patty Foote. (Lower left corner) Jack Hunter shows off his colt, one of his many projects. Harold Gunn (Lower right corner) won the DeKalb Award. Harold was this year's FFA president. Other officers were: Mike Dillon, v-pres.; Janice Stewart, sec.; Ronald Lee, treas.; Jack Hunter, reporter; and Carl Lindesmith, sentinel.

Leaders, Learners, And Doers

Larriettes Promote Spirit Days

Hard Work, Dedication, And Loyalty

This Larriette group worked hard this year and accomplished many things. They made hoops every football game (attending some in the rain) and surprised the teams with goodie bags. They also sponsored a homecoming parade as well as making all the background decorations and organizing both homecomings. For basketball season they decorated the locker rooms, the buses, the guys cars, lockers, and their bedrooms; left goodie bags and bought cakes for both teams; made one special hoop, sold spirit ribbons and dogger license plates, made signs for the halls and the front of the school, and organized pep assemblies, pep rallies, and special days.

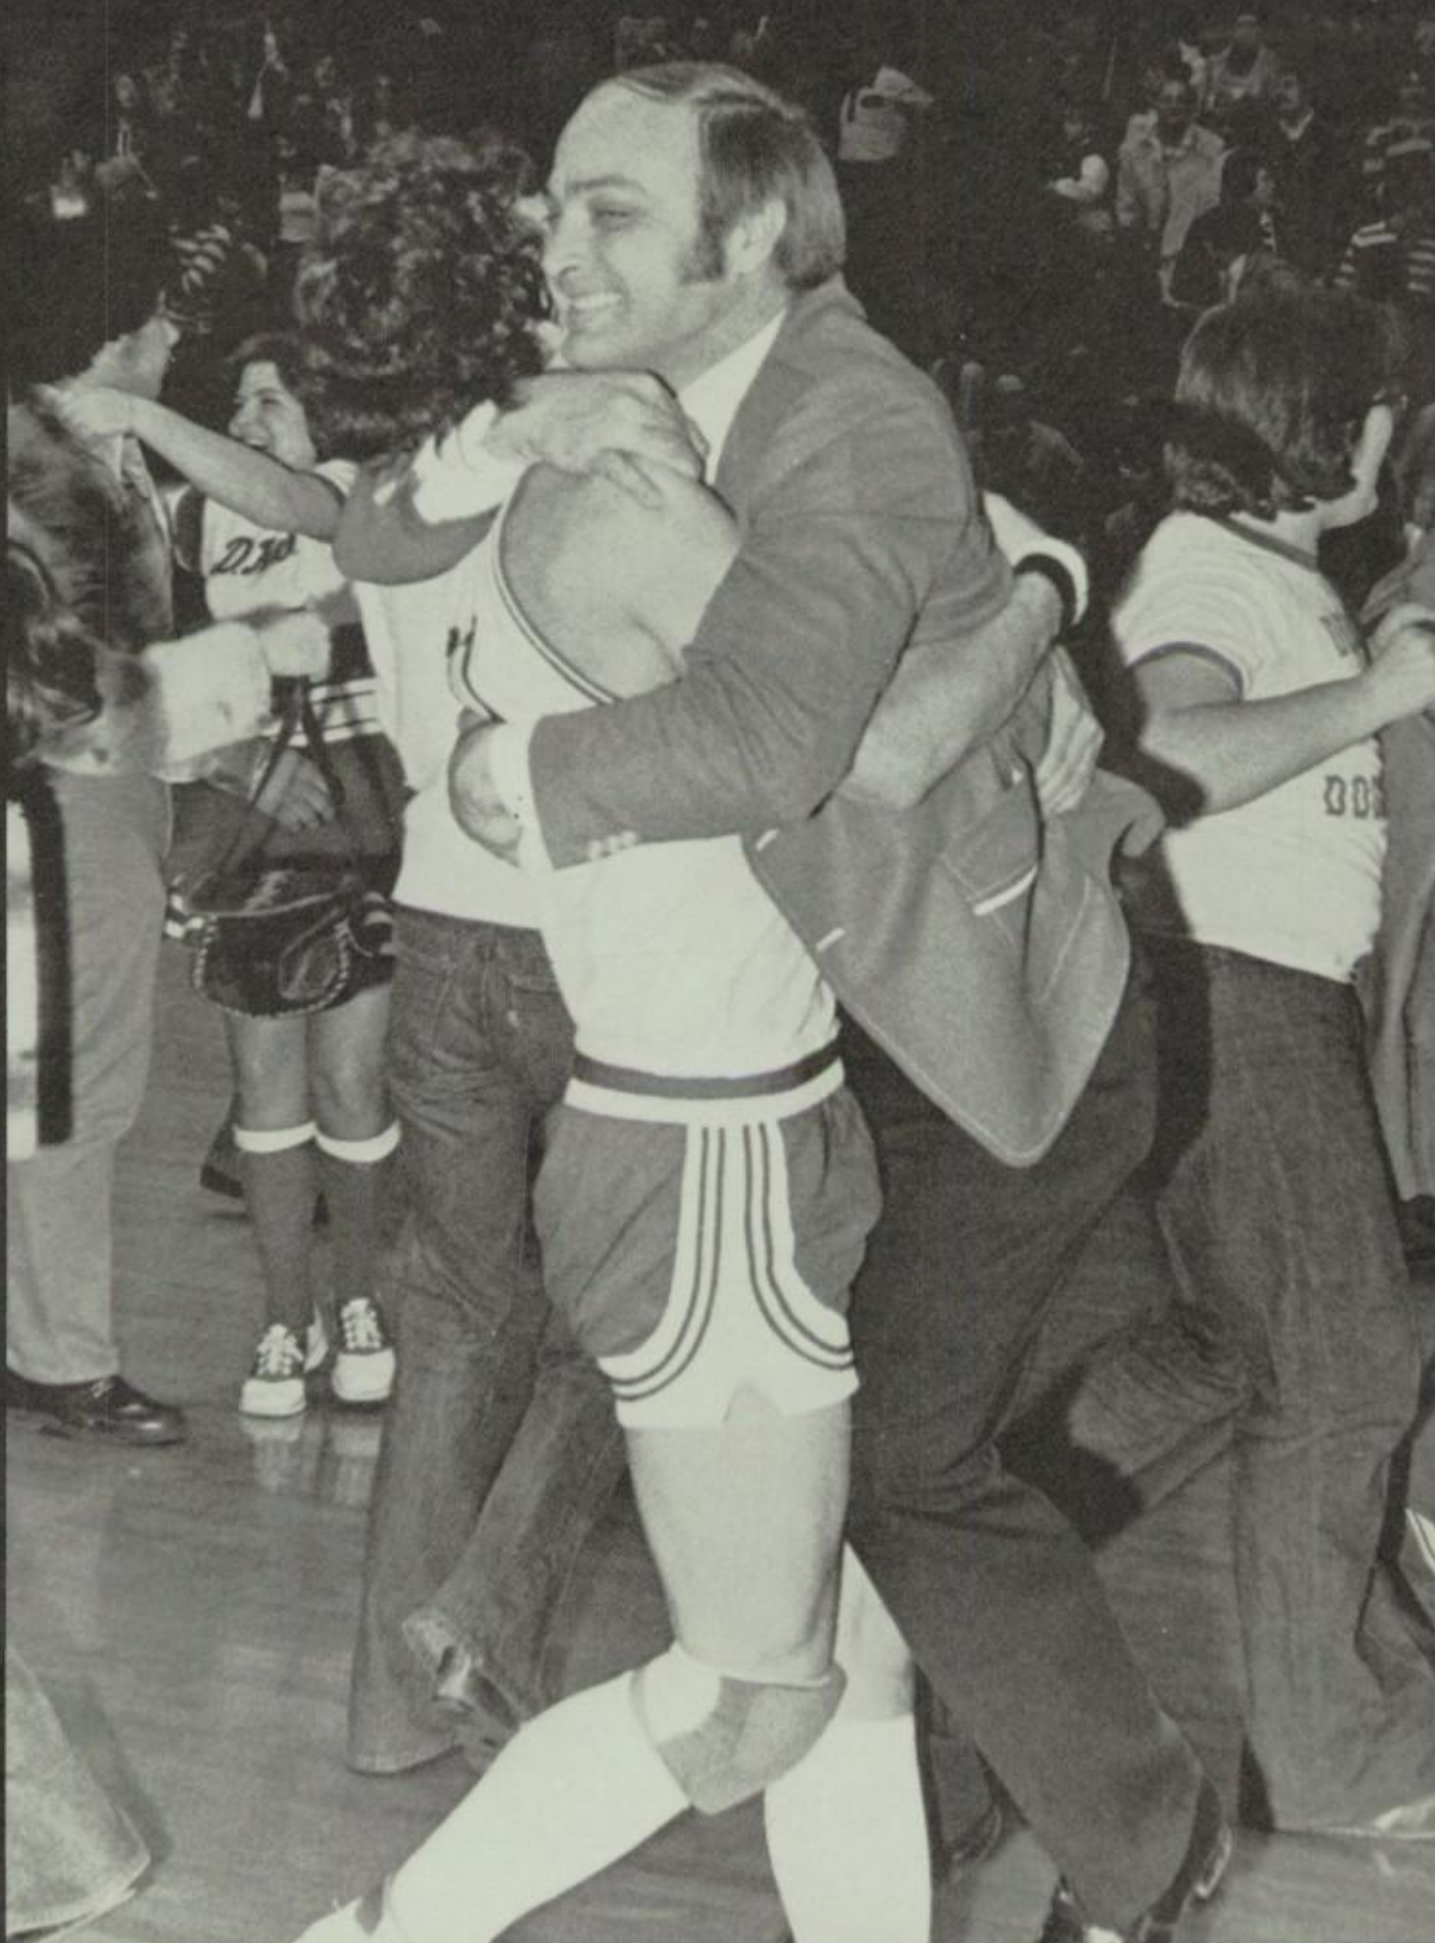

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders perform a very special job at DHS. Their pep and spirit lead each team on to victory and their "never-say-die" attitude sees the teams through their losses. Miss Nancy Pike (Right) was the '76-'77 head cheerleader, culminating a five-year career as a spirit leader. The squad consisted of: Liz Bowers, Nancy Pike, Terri Glass, Missy Adams, Jill Whittenburg, Michelle Moffat, Lorri Inda, and Dana Yearout.

Highly Successful Season

The 1976-77 Basketball Season was a very satisfying one even though we did not reach our major objective, that of winning the state championship. This was one of Dewey High School's most successful basketball seasons in many years. Not only did this basketball team have outstanding athletes, but this team had outstanding leaders, outstanding citizens, outstanding students and above all, fine Christian men.

Accomplishments for this team were many. Probably the most satisfying accomplishment was winning the Verdigris Valley Championship, especially after being picked 3rd in pre-season. Our conference record was 7-1, losing only to Pawhuska. This was the first Valley Championship since the late 1930's. We also won the Nowata Invitational Tournament Title by defeating Chelsea, Pryor and Vinita in that order. In January we also won the Northeastern Oklahoma Invitational Tournament at Miami by defeating Kansas, Sequoyah of Claremore and again Vinita in the finals. Our other championship was the Regional at Oologah, where we defeated Oologah, Collinsville and Sequoyah of Claremore in the finals. Our season ended with a heartbreaking 72-71 loss to Cleveland in the Area Tournament.

Other highlights of the season included winning our first 15 games before losing to Pawhuska. At that time we were ranked No. 1 by the Tulsa World. We also defeated a very fine Vinita team four times. Once in the finals at the NIT, once in the finals at NEO, twice in conference play, the last being for the conference championship.

Individual honors went to Paul Likens, David DeShazo, Jeff Enabnit and Mark Johnson for being All-Conference. We felt like our other starter, Warren Murray also should have been named Verdigris Valley All-Conference. Paul Likens was named Verdigris Valley Player of the Year. He was also chosen Special Recognition All-State by the Daily Oklahoman. Paul Likens and David DeShazo were also chosen to represent Dewey High School at the Northern All-Star Classic at Northern Junior College in May.

Individual department leaders for the year were: Total Points, Paul Likens, Field Goal Percentage, Jeff Enabnit, Total Rebounds, David DeShazo, Assist Leader was Warren Murray, Free Throw Percentage, David DeShazo.

The other Senior on the team was John Murgula. We also got excellent play from our bench. Roger Ropp and Morton Willoughby consistently came off the bench as our 6th and 7th players and performed well.

Overall, we feel that Dewey should be proud of these young men's accomplishments this past year.

The Way We Were

Basketball Royalty '77

Freshmen Have Outstanding Season

The Freshmen Basketballers achieved alot throughout their long season, under the dedicated coaching of Mr. Hewitt. They ended up with a very successful fifteen and two record. The always aggressive Freshmen placed very high in three tough tourneys, including a third place in the Sooner Tourney, and two firsts in the Fairfax and Delaware Tourneys. Speech — The Talk

This year for the first time, DHS has had three speech classes. (Above) Those in the second hour class are Back row: Crystal Willis, Randy Inlow, Jim Hamlin, Larry West, Mike Hensely, Jeff McClune, Steve Van Gunda, Dean Williams, Steve House, Harold Gunn. Front: Paul Likens, Teresa Mallow, Dana Yearout, and Karen May. In the upper right corner is the fourth hour class. It includes: Back: Richard Maldonado, Troy Lippert, Steve Shriver, Cecil Green, Bobby Thomison, Ernie Hardeman, Martin Witt. Front: Scott Boyd, Barbara Allen, Sandy Ker, Peggy Stuart. (Below) Don Howard, Tina Chancellor, Kelly Kroh, Julie Hunter, Jeff Enabnit, Martha Smithson, Mark Johnson, Toby Franks, David DeShazo, and Gary Underhill were in the fifth hour class.

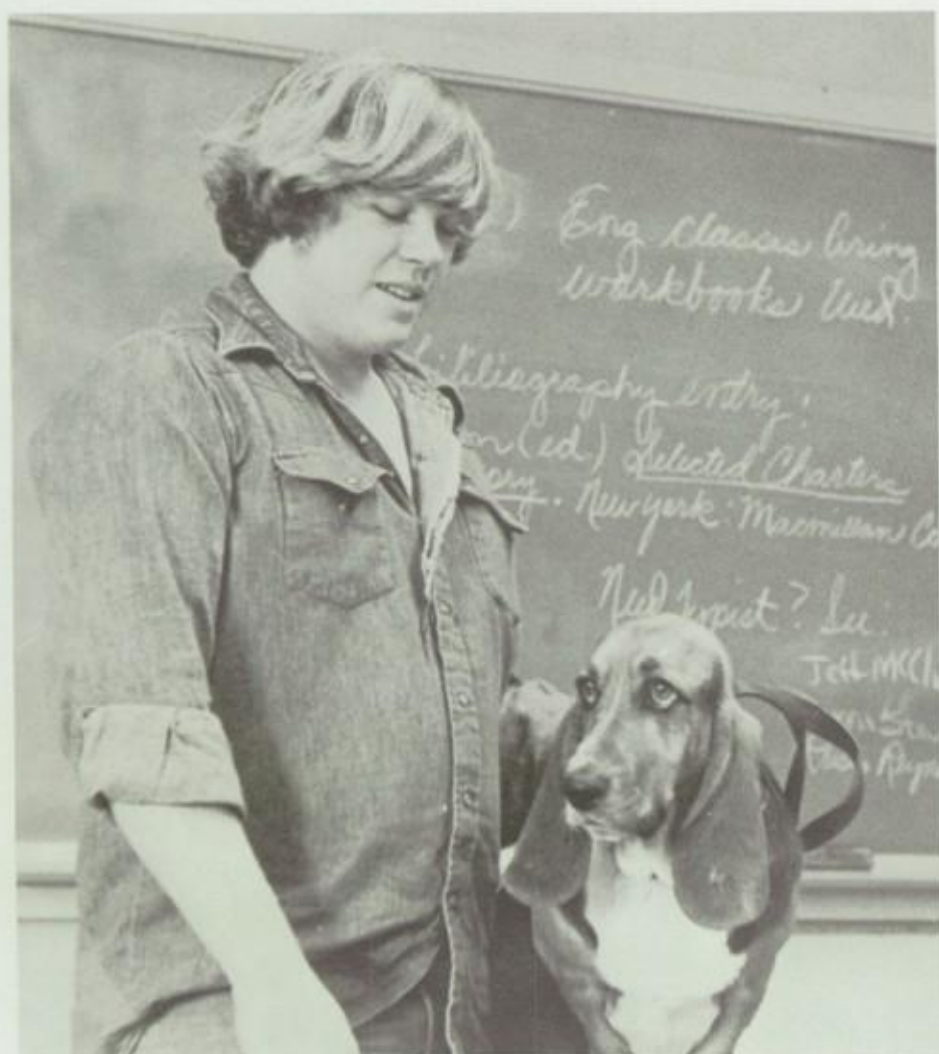

Wearing his very own Pet Rock Obedience School Trainer shirt, Gary Cummins (Above) showed the Speech class how to train their Pet Rock to heel. He also demonstrated how to get their Rock to lie down and to roll over.

Of The School

Speech is a different and exciting class. No matter what hour you happened to be in they all had their own surprises and fun. All year speech students choked through all sorts of speeches, such as: demonstrative, persuasive, informative, commercials, television newscasts, debates and even eulogies. Amidst all of the hurried outlines and scribbled note cards the speech classes found out that speaking can be fun. (Below) Jamie Popkess gives his informative speech on skiing. Troy Lippert is shown demonstrating his ability to paddle in a rubber raft.

A good topic for a demonstration is one's pet. (Top photo) John Murguia shows off his hamster. (Bottom photo) D. Merkey's dog seems to be bored by the whole thing.

The Typical Typists Of DHS

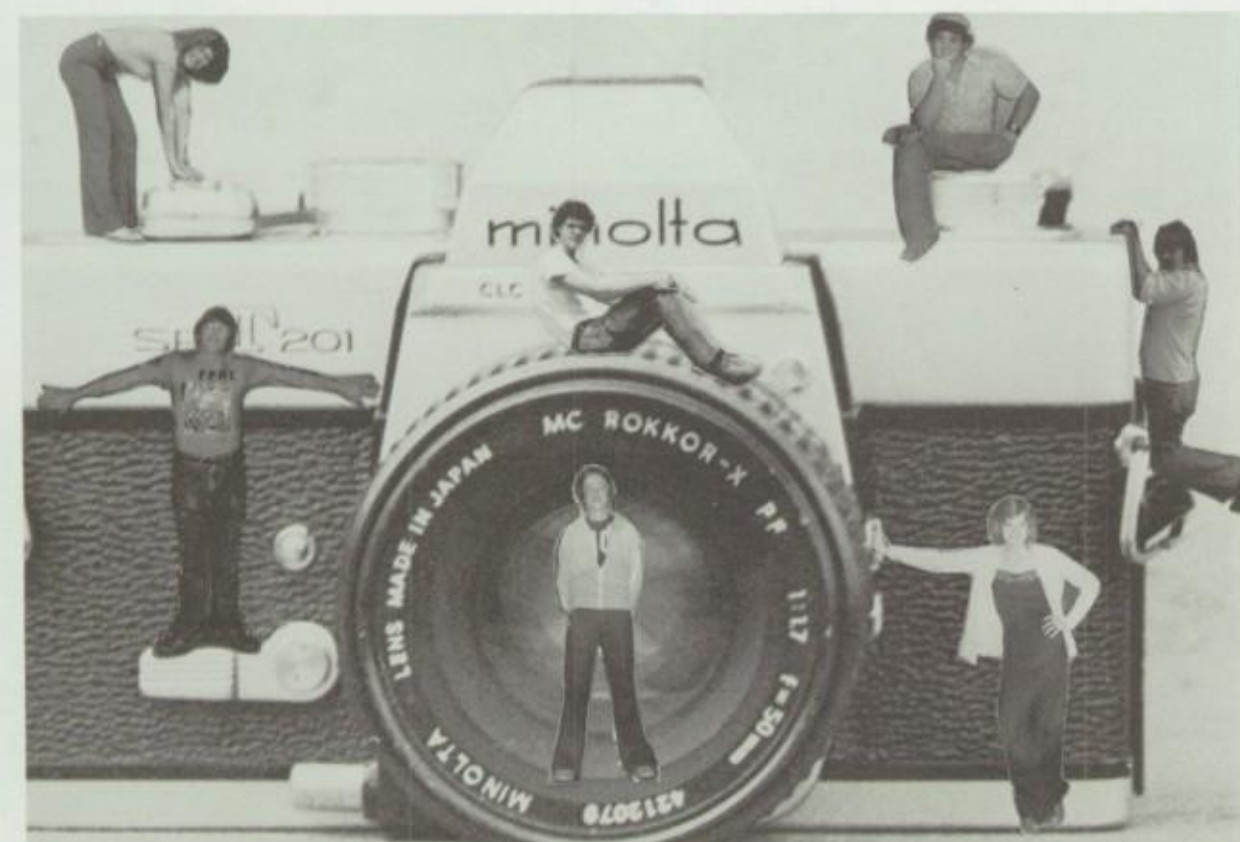

Journalism Students

Students in journalism quickly found that the class offers fun as well as many hours of hard work. The fun was in selling ads, writing articles for the newspaper, sitting in the office because you're in trouble, hiding in the dark room, roaming the halls looking for "ideas," etc. The hard work came when the rush to meet deadlines kept everyone on edge, and having to give up the first week of summer vacation to finish up wasn't much fun. (Left) Cindy French holes up in the only private place in the room to look over ideas from a Tulsa yearbook. (Below, left) Arlys Nieman, '77 editor of the "Bulldogger," dreams of her college career at OSU. Arlys was awarded a journalism scholarship from the Don-Rey Media Foundation. (Below, top photo) Dana Hindman, '77 editor of the "Roundup," glances over the final issue dedicated to our graduating Seniors. Dana was named "Most Valuable Staffer" by the Examiner-Enterprise. (Below, bottom) Staffers were: Ronald Lee, Paul Foster, Tina Wilson, Bob Alexander, Lorri Inda, Mark Talkington, Gary Gwaltney, Cindy French, Dana Hindman, Peggy Stuart, Martha Smithson, Kathy Rowton, Mary Downing - Sponsor, and Steve Shriver.

Martha Smithson and Kathy Rowton were two faces in the 1977 Senior Class. Both showed a tremendous amount of spirit and pride not only in the D.H.S. teams but in the Senior class itself. Their friendship may through the years be lost but it will never be forgotten.

Through football, basketball, and baseball, Jeff McClune and Bobby Thomison always stood out, if not as a participant at the time, then as one of the many cheering fans.

The Seniors of '77 truly showed what "spirit" really means. For some it means yelling their lungs out at games, for others, it was just simply giving a player a pat on the back and quietly saying "you played a good game."

(Opp. page center) Paul Likens, Warren Murray, David DeShazo and Mark Johnson showed their spirit by appearing as KISS characters on "Your Favorite Star" day. (This page) Ernie Hardeman may not have chosen quite as dramatic a way of showing his spirit but it was always there when he would play his heart out for DHS.

Yes, whether it was in the form of a fan or as a player, "spirit" was most definitely always there.

Vision — Present, A Reality

The end finally came, ninety-six Seniors of 1977 graduated May 26. A lot of memories were left behind as these ninety-six walked off the football field for the last time as members of DHS. New visions were sighted, horizons were broadened, while memories were tucked away in hearts as the keys were hidden in the minds.

A brand new world opened up for each Senior as they flipped their tassels to the left. A new day with a whole new beginning was begun. A new day, a day which is full of happiness, joy, smiles, hope and love. A day when the past is put behind, only to be remembered in sentimental moments, the future to be seen as a vision of hope, and the present to be experienced as a reality.

We are tomorrows leaders. We are to determine our own destiny; to reach this destiny we must have dreams. Dreams for ourselves and for ourselves and for America's future. Dreams that will guide us to a better tomorrow. For all things start as a dream.

Juniors In Action

On the opposite page, Denise Robinson points out some interesting tidbits in a Man, Myth and Magic book to Diana Johnston. The Junior class donated a set of these books to the library. David Gay stops to smile for the photographer, while Cindy French was caught by surprise. Is Charice Baker slipping into a trance? No, she is just having fun at the Y-teen Halloween party. An inevitable part of the Junior year is term papers. For many weeks the scene at the bottom left was a familiar one. Those hard at work are (Starting at left) Ray Sayles, John Hamlin, Chris Grimmitt, Randy South, Mark Jordan and Jimmy Edwards. Gary Gwaltney, at right, showed spirit by dressing up for 50's day at Homecoming.

Freshmen Look Onward

The Freshman Class Officers are: Chris Williams - President, Mary Elmore - Vice President, Debbie Parnell - Secretary, and Mike Sise - Reporter.

The Freshmen had an exciting and eventful year. They sold a total of $1,093 worth of candy for their treasury.

The Freshmen football and basketball teams both had outstanding seasons, and the Freshmen class was represented on the high school baseball team.

Projects "with what you have" and projects having to do with the ODYSSEY were very successful.

Freshmen have shown leadership and scholarship and have been an asset to our school.

Thanks Everybody!

The '77 Bulldogger staff would like to acknowledge their gratitude to all the people who made this edition of the Bulldogger possible. Thanks for all the rush jobs on pictures you've done for us. Thanks Chuck Williams for taking the aerials for the Theme pages, and thanks staff for all the long hours you spent putting this book together. Staff members for this book were: Gary Gwaltney and Paul Foster, Sports pages; Martha Smithson and Kathy Rowton, Events; Dana Hindman, Organizations; Tina Wilson, Sophomore pages and typist; Cindy French, Freshman pages; Lorri Inda, General assistant; Mark Talkington, Advertising Editor; Photographers, Tommy Strate, Peggy Stuart, Cecil Green, Steve Shriver, Cindy French, Ronald Lee. And a special thanks to photographer Bob Alexander who faithfully helped us out to the very end of this year. Mrs. Downing, thank you too, for doing so much more than duty called for.

Arlys Nieman
Editor, '77 Bulldogger
